

The mission of the Martin Housing Authority is to become a regional leader and entrepreneurial force within the affordable and traditional housing industry while developing and implementing programs and services that promote independence, self-sufficiency, and upward mobility.